

The 2006 Nicaraguan Presidential Elections: Prospects for the Region

LATIN AMERICAN BRIEFING SERIES

A panel discussion with:

Alejandro Bendaña, Centro de Estudios Internacionales, Nicaragua

Founder and Board Chair of the Centro de Estudios Internacionales and international consultant on postwar reconstruction, demobilization, and peacebuilding. He served Nicaragua as Secretary General in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs from 1984-1990.

Michel Gobat, Professor, History, University of Iowa

He received his Ph.D. from the University of Chicago. His research interests focus on the impact of U.S. intervention in the Caribbean basin, and the nature of revolutionary processes in this region during the 20th century. Author of Confronting the American Dream: Nicaragua under U.S. Imperial Rule (2005).

Rose Spalding, Professor, Political Science, DePaul University

She received her Ph.D. from the University of North Carolina. Her fields of specialization are comparative politics and international political economy mainly focus on Mexico and Central America. Author of The Political Economy of Revolutionary Nicaragua (1989).

Introduction presented by Professor Friedrich Katz

January 16, 2006
6:00 PM

<http://clas.uchicago.edu>

<http://ihouse.uchicago.edu> .edu

International House, Home Room
1414 E. 59th Street

This event is free and open to the public

Organized by The Center for Latin American Studies and co-sponsored by
The International House Global Voices Program

Persons with disabilities may request assistance in advance by calling the International House at 773-753-2274

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO

